

OWB CORE VALUES

APRIL 2024

Collaboration and Co-operation

- We work for the common good in relationship with water and wastewater utilities in developing countries in a spirit of friendship, collaboration, and cooperation.

Respect

- We bring respect for cultures, diversity and inclusion in all engagements with our stakeholders and in keeping with the core principles of the United Nation's Policy: Protection from Sexual Exploitation and Abuse

Integrity, Transparency, and Accountability

- We engage in decision-making and activities guided by principles of integrity, transparency, and accountability to build trust with our stakeholders.

Safety

- We emphasize safe work practices as a priority in our assignments.

Sustainability

- We support sustainability and resilience as essential elements in the initiatives for which we volunteer, including the general guidance of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)
